Press release - December 2020

Time & Style édition collection exhibition at Time & Style Atmosphere

TIME & STYLE

ATMOSPHERE

In December 2020, Time & Style open a new space, Time & Style Atmosphere, in the sophisticated district of Minami Aoyama in Tokyo.

The four floors building offers a view of the lush garden of the prestigious Nezu Museum redesigned by the Japanese architect Kuma Kengo.

In this charming environment, Time & Style aims to share its philosophy and culture through diverse spaces, be it gallery, store, or sometimes, salon, and transform them into places where people can get together and create communication.

Time & Style Atmosphere plans to hold exhibitions on themes, including products, design, and handicrafts.

It communicates the discreet elegance of traditional Japanese wood craftsmanship through a modern lens that emphasizes each design's timeless quality.

The collection, ranging from dining and low tables, chairs, and cabinets in solid wood, to light fixtures with shades made from traditional Japanese washi paper, offers an eclectic assortment of contemporary Japanese furniture that harmoniously with the sophisticated living systems of Boffi | DePadova.

Boffi | DePadova first introduce Time & Style édition collection in its showrooms in Milan, London, Paris, and New York in September and October 2020. Now it is available at Boffi | DePadova showrooms in 70 major cities worldwide.

In Japan, the Time & Style édition collection is available at Time & Style stores and through its contract division.

TIME & STYLE

Time & Style

Founded in Berlin, Germany in 1990, Time & Style, now based in Japan and Amsterdam in the Netherlands, promotes Japanese craftsmanship while building its customer base. The company aims to bring this new vision of Japanese craftsmanship to its clients in Japan and worldwide.

At its factory in Asahikawa, Hokkaido, Time & Style handles every step of the production process, from drying, cutting, and assembling wood to polishing and finishing the final products. This process is done by artisan's hands whenever possible, with minimal use of machines. Each piece reflects the meticulous attention to detail of Japanese craftsmanship.

Boffi | DePadova

The Boffi | DePadova group consists of Boffi, an industry leader in kitchen products, and DePadova, which works with designers worldwide to create high quality, fashionable products for interior spaces. It also includes MA/U Studio, shelving systems, and ADL, a manufacturer of beautiful and highly functional partition systems.
